

Stitcher's Hideaway 2019 Making Memories in Mystic Fun Report

For many of us, the holidays just wouldn't be complete without time together at the Annual Stitcher's Hideaway Making Memories in Mystic Retreat! It's a nice escape before the busy-ness of the holidays and for many it's a chance to stitch on special gifts.

The retreat was held within walking distance of Olde Mystick Village in Mystic, CT, which has many fun places to shop and explore – including restaurants and even a movie theater. During this retreat the Village held a Festival of Lights. Close by is the Mystic Aquarium, Mystic Seaport Museum - Maritime Museum in Mystic, CT, and Downtown Mystic with shops and restaurants.

How we love snuggling in for 3 days and nights of fun and friendship with other stitchers!

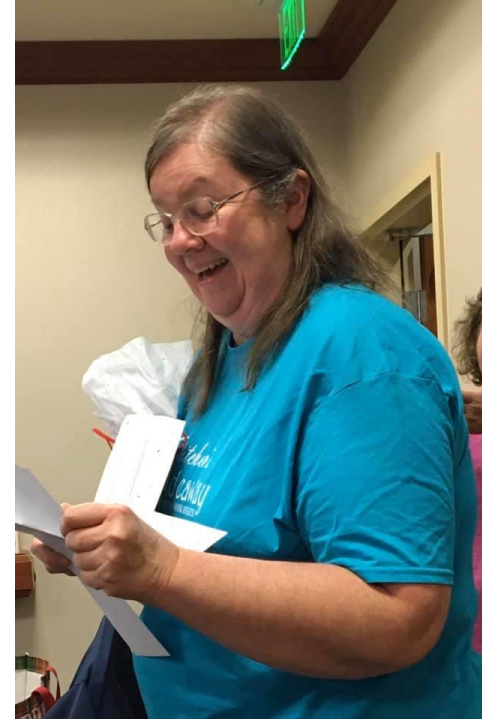

Of course it wouldn't be a Stitches Hideaway Retreat without door prizes and a Fun Pack of goodies! Items were donated by 123Stitch, Amy Bruecken Designs, Brightneedle, Kreinik, Morning Glory Needleworks, Rosewood Manor, Stitches Hideaway, Tempting Tangles, Victoria Sampler, Weeks Dye Works, and With My Needle as well as generous gifts from anonymous donors.

Of course we had to have our traditional Show 'n Tell!

Denise

Lauren

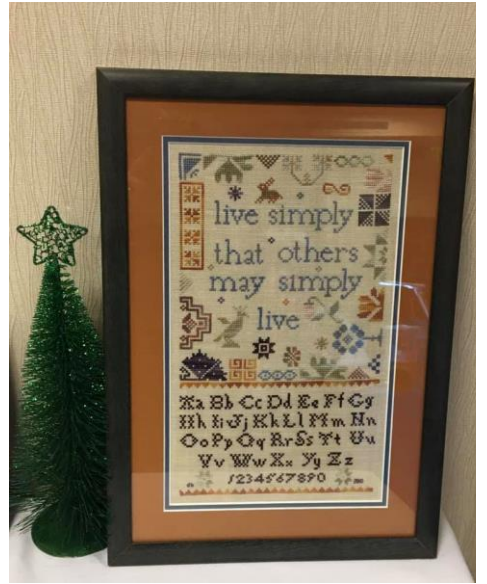

Sue

Sue Donnelly had a little gift design for each us!

Linda demonstrated the strength of her magnetic needle minders when used as earrings! They even held her scissors! Teehee!

Well, we sure had a great time with all the stitching, sharing, eating cookies, laughter, eating cookies, stitching, meals from Mystic Market, eating cookies, Show 'n Tell, Door Prizes, and oh....did I mention eating cookies?

See you at the next retreat!
